Annual Survey on International Trade in Banking Services 2022-23

(To be reported by Indian banks having Offices/Branches/Joint ventures/Associates/Subsidiaries abroad)

Please note the following instructions before filling up the survey schedule

Objective : Liberalization of international trade in financial services is one of the important aspects of negotiations on trade in services as a part of the General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS), which mainly depends on the multilateral negotiations with WTO members. The availability of data is a prerequisite for meaningful negotiations under GATS. The basic objective of this annual survey is to create a consistent and comparable database on international trade in banking services, keeping in view of the requirements for policy decisions and consistency with international standards. The data furnished in the schedule will be kept confidential and will be used only for statistical purposes.

Who should submit this Schedule: The schedule has to be filled in by all Indian banks who have set up Branches/Subsidiaries/Joint Venture/Associates abroad. They should submit separate schedule for each country of their operations. The data should consist of the operations consolidated for all branches in a particular country. In case, the bank has set up a Joint Venture / Subsidiary/Associate , separate survey form should be submitted for each entity .

Further, it may be noted that banks have to submit the survey form only for those Joint Ventures/Subsidiaries/Associates which are engaged in the financial service/banking service.

Information collected: This survey collects information in five sections.

Section I: The information on contact detail in India and their overseas branches / subsidiaries distribution operating abroad is collected in Section I.

Section II: The information on Indian banks' overseas operations like assets and liabilities, credit extended and deposits mobilized is collected in Section II. This information is collected mainly to analyze the Indian bank's growth in overseas business.

Section III: The Section III collects information on income and expenditure mainly interest received, interest paid and net profit or loss during the period. This information is collected mainly to analyze the Indian bank's growth in income from its overseas business.

Section IV: This section collects information on the various banking services provided by the Indian banks abroad . The banking services are captured based on the explicit and implicit fees or commission charged to the customers for the various services rendered by the bank. Please note that any income generated on account of interest should not be reported in Section IV.

Section V: In this section, banks may provide their comments and additional information on the data which they have provided in Section I to IV. This will be helpful in compiling the data at our end to maintain consistency among the banks

Important Points to be remembered:

1. Indians who are working abroad for more than one year and Indian Companies incorporated in the foreign country have to be considered as local entities to that country for which the survey form is filled in.
2. Indian Embassies and Indian employees of the Embassies have to be considered as Indian residents.
3. The figures representing amounts in the schedule have to be provided in the base currency in which the information is reported to the Corporate office in India. This base currency has to be specified in the appropriate place in the Survey form.
4. Before mailing the schedule please ensure that total assets is equal to total liabilities for all time periods
5. For any further clarification please feel free to contact our concerned officials. The contact numbers are:

(1) 022-26578649, 022-26578247

(2) 022-26578494

Last date of Submission: Submit the filled in questionnaire in soft copy on or before August 10, 2023 of the Survey Year
Where to Submit the Filled in Schedule: The filled in survey schedule in soft copy is to be emailed to itbs@rbi.org.in

General Guidelines for properly filling the survey form

This survey form is designed to collect and compile information relating to the various financial services rendered by the overseas branches/offices / JV/ Subsidiary/ Associate of Indian banks. During the course of carrying out banking business abroad, they may be catering to the financial services needs of the residents of the country of their operations as well as residents of India and other countries. Accordingly the survey schedule is designed to collect information with bifurcation of services rendered to residents of the country of operation, residents of India and residents of other countries. In order to provide clarity to some of the parameters for which information is sought for in the survey a detailed description is provided as given below.

Resident: For the purpose of this survey, the concept of resident is as follows:

"An entity is called a resident entity in India, if they reside in India and conduct economic activities and transactions over a period of one year or more in India." Accordingly the residency of the entity/individual/institution with whom the bank provides their services may be captured based on the location of the entity/individual/institution.

Eg: HTC Global services India Pvt. Ltd is a Non- resident entity for overseas Indian bank. But HTC Global services INC, USA is a Resident for an Indian bank in US.

State Bank of India is a Non-resident while State Bank of India, UK, is a Resident for the information regarding SBI branches in UK.

Wipro, US will be local resident to Indian Banks in US.

Mr. 'X' Working as an Engineer in UAE is a local to UAE Indian Bank branches/ Subsidiary/ Joint venture .

General Guidelines for properly filling the survey form

This survey form is designed to collect and compile information relating to the various financial services rendered by the foreign bank branches/offices/JV/subsidiary/associate in India. During the course of carrying out banking business in India, they may be catering to the financial services needs of the residents of India and other countries. Accordingly in the survey schedule, the information has to be provided with bifurcation of services rendered to residents and non-residents separately. In order to provide clarity to some of the parameters for which information is sought for in the survey, a detailed description is provided as given below.

Resident: For the purpose of this survey, the concept of resident is as follows:

"An entity is called a resident entity in India, if they reside in India and conduct economic activities and transactions over a period of one year or more in India." Accordingly the residency of the entity/individual/institution with whom the bank provides their services may be captured based on the location of the entity/individual/institution.

Eg: HTC Global services India Pvt. Ltd is a resident entity for India. But HTC Global services INC, USA is a Non-resident entity.

State Bank of India is a resident while State Bank of India, UK, is a non-resident.
